Worth Your Salt

Text A: Matthew 5:13–16

How can a Christian be like salt in the world?

How can a Christian be like light in the world?

How can you personally be “salt and light” in your workplace?

Text B: 2 Corinthians 2:14–17

How does this describe us as believers?

How do people respond to the “aroma” of the knowledge of Christ?

What can this passage teach us about sharing our faith in our everyday lives?

Text C: Colossians 4:5–6

What sort of “opportunity” is this talking about?

How can our conversation be “seasoned with salt”? What effect would that have?

What can this passage teach us about sharing our faith in our everyday lives?

Text D: 1 Peter 3:13–16

According to these verses, how should we act when sharing the gospel? How should we treat people?

How should we respond if people give us a hard time for sharing our faith?

What answer would you give if someone you work with asked, “Why do you have so much hope?”
